Give Thanks No Matter What

Bottom Line: Always be grateful.

Hello, my name is...

Who are you, really? The answer may be simpler than you think. In this series, we'll discover that when we look to God for the answer, we can live confidently knowing our identity is found in Him.

Week 1

Bottom Line: What God says about you is the most important thing about you.

Who are you, really? It's an important question because who you think you are can decide a lot about your life. This week we'll discover that when it comes to really understanding who we are, the most important voice we can listen to is God's.

Week 2

Bottom Line: Be kind to yourself.

Have you ever thought about the way you talk to yourself? Most of us say negative things to ourselves that we would never say to other people. And soon enough, those negative messages become a part of who we are. This week we'll see that one of the best things we can do to better our lives is show ourselves a little kindness.

Week 3

Bottom Line: It takes courage to live in the light.

When it comes to figuring out who we are and who we want to be, it can be tough to know exactly where to aim. But Paul gives us the best target to shoot for - Jesus. As we read his words of wisdom this week, we'll get a glimpse of the kind of person Jesus helps us become-the kind of people who live in the light.
